

Current Job Seekers

The Community Employment Partnership, is a partnership between Belonging Matters and Rotary. We are passionate about finding work for people with a disability. Below are our current jobseekers, all very keen to find employment, starting from 3 hours a week. Simply have a chat with us to find out more about the project or enquire about job seekers.

Amelia: I'm looking for a job in the Performing Arts or Music Industry. For example acting, front of house, team support and customer service. I am friendly and outgoing. I have good computer skills. I am an experienced public speaker and have featured in a short film and TV commercials.
Area: Eastern suburbs

Lachlan: I'm looking for a job in an office or retail setting. I have lots of work skills: office admin, computers, shelving and sorting, filing and customer service. I'm always reliable, friendly and try 100% at work. I am great with public transport and am also learning to drive, so very willing to travel to work.
Area: Northern and Central Melbourne

Lincoln: I'm looking for work in the arts or community setting. I enjoy helping people and learning new things. My skills include office admin, retail, customer service, sorting and stacking, clearing/cleaning. I am a passionate St Kilda FC fan, and like keeping fit, so would love to work in a related field.
Area: Bayside and South Eastern Melbourne

Harriet: I am looking for work in hospitality. I have experience in baking, plating food, serving food and coffees to customers and keeping the kitchen area clean. I am friendly and love working in a small team. I also have experience in administration.
Area: Inner North East Melbourne

Emily: I'm looking for a job in an office or retail setting. I have lots of work skills: office admin, computers, typing and transcribing, filing and customer service. I'm friendly, enthusiastic and help make the workplace welcoming. I have experience in childcare, office support and business, and run my own craft micro business.
Area: Eastern suburbs, Glen Waverley and surrounds

Dani: I'm looking for a job in retail. I'm friendly, organised and great at keeping things tidy.
Area: Inner South East Melbourne
